Suggestions, comments, criticisms, inquiries, and questions are invited.

Address communications to Motion Picture Editor, Washington Herald.

There is a grave question concerned t in the propriety of the exhibition of a film in which the assassination of President Lincoln at Ford's Theater is a fea-ture. The advance notices of "The Toll of War" tell us the late President Lin-coln is impersonated and the interior of Ford's Theater are "big points" in the production. We recall that beautiful "The Battle Hymn of the Republic," which Lincoln was impersonated, but in n which Lincoln was impersonated, but in ohase that brought in his tragic death. We venture the opinion there are many who would enjoy seeing "The Battle Hymn of the Republic" if any local ex-hibitor is "courageous" (?) enough to show it as a "commercial."

For the benetit of scenario writers complete and accepted scenario will be rinted in these columns at an early ate in connection with the final annuncement of the terms of the in-A Bisen Favorite.
